LAWN THAT'S NOT A LAWN IS LOS ANGELES' LATEST

LOS ANGELES, June 22 .- A lawn LOS ANGELES, June 22.—A lawn that is not a lawn, but looks like a lawn and is said by its owner to be better than a lawn—a waterless, mowerless, weedless, gopheriess lawn—in short, a cement "lawn," painted grassgreen, has made its appearance in front of a Los Angeles bungalow.

Mrs. A. C. Woodward, inventor and owner, says it saves time, money and owner, says it saves time, money and worry. She never has to water it; she never has to cut it; it is always dry enough to sit on—and it needs painting only once a year.

NEW YORK, June 22.-Dissatisfaction with the government's census fig-ures which showed New York had gained $54,824 residents in the last ten years caused city officials to start 700 enumerators on a test count in 1100 Manhattan districts.

Before the government's figures were announced it had been prelicted New York would show a gain of more than 1,000,000 souls, putting the total population over the six million mark. Instead, the total was a mere 5,621,-151 and the borough of Manhattan with 2,284,103 showed an actual derease of 47,439.

VIOLENT CLOUDBURST IN NAPLES WREAKS HAVOC

NAPLES, June 22-A violent cloudburst caused great damage Sunday in the neighborhood of this city. Tor-rents of rain and huge hall stones, acrents of rain and huge hall stones, accompanied by severe thunder and lightning caused destruction of property, especially in Posilipo, a suburb, where water over a foot deep rushed down the roads, sweeping all before it.
The children's hospital at Posilipo was damaged. Several villas near Naples were demolished, while damage was general in towns surrounding Mount Vesuvius. Crops have been seriously injured.
